AT THE LAKE is effortless entertaining
in Muskoka and Almaguin Highlands.

The main headquarters is located in the BIGGEST LITTLE TOWN, Kearney, Ontario. Here, a quaint, little wine and cheese bar exists to serve locals and cottagers with a small plates menu, craft wine & beer list, retail fancy snacks (truffle chips, charcuterie, hot honey, etc.) all year long AT THE LAKE.

Seasonal summer retail and event location is located just north of Port Severn on beautiful Six Mile Lake (June-September.)

Private parties and catering services are available.

INSIDE AT THE LAKE KEARNEY

Inside the cottage-sized wine bar, visitors will find a cozy ambiance with seating at the bar or large harvest table (seating up to 12). Guests are welcome to pop in to enjoy the small plates menu and wine by the glass (beer and other beverages also available).

A large collection of cook books, wine stories, and table games are stacked throughout the room to pass the cottage days away looking out at the peaceful view of Perry Lake with a good cup of tea, coffee or glass of wine.

Reservations are recommended. A full dinner menu is available by request and reservation. Sample menus may be found here.

MENU CONCEPT

The concept is to keep it simple, clean and seasonal.

This is achieved by utilizing fresh and specialized ingredients, playing the classics and letting the ingredients do the talking. Relying as much as possible on local ingredients, herbs & flowers from the garden and an abundant collection of Canadian cheeses, AT THE LAKE offers bold, colourful dishes in a variety of styles.
